

Artists and Teachers, Access and Inclusion

A professional development opportunity for Arts Education professionals and others. Goals for the 2005 Summer Training Institute:

- To educate and sensitize teaching artists as well as classroom teachers to the specific learning needs of students with disabilities.
- To help teachers and teaching artists develop strategies and activities for helping all students learn in and through the arts in an inclusive instructional setting.

Core Sessions:

Assessment & Evaluation
Access & Inclusion

Workshop Topics:

- Parent Involvement
- Partnerships: Artists & Teachers
- Drama in the Classroom
- Adaptive Tools & Techniques
- Engaging Activities
- Classroom Behavior Management

CORE SESSIONS are the "big idea" sessions. All participants will experience the same Core Sessions; participants will be assigned to one of two groups, meeting for one Core Session each on Tuesday and Wednesday. The Thursday core session will include all participants, with an emphasis on reflection and next steps.

WORKSHOPS will be offered as a menu of options; the same six workshops will be offered each day, so that participants have the opportunity to attend up to four of the six workshops.

The daily ART MOMENT is a hands-on artistic experience - an opportunity for participants to make art together, as well as reflect on the process and relate it to their individual work.
